If you do not have an account, click “Register” (previous screen), add your information (see below), and click “Create Account”:

The screenshot shows the registration page for the 'Apply' portal. At the top, it says 'Apply' with a logo and 'Register for an applicant account'. Below this, there are three social media login options: Facebook, Twitter, and Google. An 'OR' separator follows. The registration form includes fields for 'First name', 'Last name', 'Email', 'Password', and 'Confirm password'. Each password field has an eye icon to toggle visibility. Below the form, there is a checkbox for 'I'm not a robot' and a reCAPTCHA widget. At the bottom, there is a green button with a red arrow pointing to it, labeled 'CREATE ACCOUNT'.

Once your account is created you will be able to access the CAORC & ORC Grant Application Portal. To see available programs, click “View Programs” or “Programs” at the top of the page:

The screenshot shows the top navigation bar with the text "CAORC & ORC Grant Application Portal" on the left and "Programs", "My Applications", and "Penny Mitchell" on the right. Below the navigation bar, there is a message: "If you have technical questions about completing your application, take a look at these FAQs. If you still have questions after reading the FAQs or have questions about the content of the application, please find contact information here." In the center, a white box contains the text "No applications." followed by "Please choose a program from our program listings page to get started" and a green button with a red arrow pointing right and the text "View programs". At the bottom of the page, there is a footer with "POWERED BY Apply" and "Copyright © SurveyMonkey | Privacy | Terms | v6.4.32".

You can search eligible programs for PARC Fellowships. Once you find the fellowship you wish to apply for, click “More”:

The screenshot shows the same navigation bar as the previous image. Below it, there is a search bar with "PARC" entered and a search icon. To the left of the search bar is the text "Eligible Programs" with a dropdown arrow. Below the search bar, there are two program listings. The first listing is titled "PARC - National Endowment for the Hum..." and includes the text: "Accepting applications from Sep 22 2020 12:01 AM (EDT) to Jan 11 2021 11:59 PM (EST) The Palestinian American Research Center (PARC) announces its 9th National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) Fellowship Programs at Independent Research Institutions (FPIRI) competition for research in the humanities or research that embraces a humanistic approach and methods. Applicants must be scholars who have earned their PhD or completed their professional training. Applicants must be U.S. citizens or have lived in the United States for the last three years." Below this text is a green button with a red arrow pointing right and the text "MORE >". The second listing is titled "PARC - Palestinian Research Fellowships" and includes the text: "Accepting applications from Sep 22 2020 12:01 AM (EDT) to Nov 24 2020 12:00 AM (EST) The Palestinian American Research Center (PARC) announces its 22nd annual Palestinian research fellowship competition for research that will contribute to Palestinian Studies. Applicants must be Palestinian doctoral students or Palestinian scholars who have earned their PhD. Research can be in the arts, humanities, social sciences, economics, and law, including inter-disciplinary studies in public health and in the environment." Below this text is a green button with a red arrow pointing right and the text "MORE >".

Once you click “More” you will be able to read a summary of the program with eligibility information, submission deadlines, award announcement dates. To apply to the program, click “Apply”:

The screenshot shows the CAORC & ORC Grant Application Portal. The header includes the portal name and navigation links for Programs, My Applications, and the user Penny Mitchell. The main content area is split into two columns. The left column displays the program title 'PARC - National Endowment for the Humanities Fellowships' and provides details: '2021-2022 NEH/FPIRI Fellowships for Scholars Conducting Field-Based Humanities Research in Palestine', application and award dates, funding amount, and eligibility requirements. The right column features a prominent green 'APPLY' button with a red arrow pointing to it, along with the program's start and end dates and categories.
